

Empathy Map

ComicCraft - AI Comic Story Creator using Gemini Models

Persona: Aisha, 19, college student who writes short stories and wants to share them as comics in class.

Quadrant	Details
Says	"I have the story in my head but I can't draw." "I need it by tomorrow."
Thinks	"Will it look good enough to show?" "Do I have to pay or sign up?"
Does	Writes outlines, searches free tools, sketches badly, asks friends to draw
Feels	Frustrated by the skill barrier; excited about AI; anxious about long waits
Pains	Tools that cost money, inconsistent results, disconnected text and images, slow generation
Gains	Quick visual result, a PDF to share, control over tone and style, no drawing needed

Insights

- Keep the form short with pill-style choices
- Show clear loading feedback
- Always end with a shareable file
